Study Trip to London

Dr. Koon and Dr. Hammers will lead a Chinese art study trip to London from December 2-8 (tentative dates). The focus of the trip is the Victoria and Albert Museum’s Masterpieces of Chinese Painting, 700-1900 and the conference “The Making of Chinese Painting, 700-1900.” Visits to other art institutions and other cultural sites of interests will also be included.

The number of participants will be limited. While preference will be given to students who are Fine Arts majors or minors, others may also apply. The cost per student is estimated at 12,000HKD, which includes travel, accommodation for 6 nights, admission fees, and meals.

Students who wish to participate should kindly fill out the application form, available from the Fine Arts Office, 1033, Run Run Shaw Tower, Centennial Campus. The closing date for applications is September 27, 5:00 pm.

Do note that the trip is scheduled at a time when many of you may be writing papers, or have exams. It is the student’s responsibility to comply with the demands of their courses. Please ensure that you are able to meet the demands of your classes. The organizers of this trip are not responsible for any time conflicts.

Students who meet certain requirements can apply for funding through the Fine Art Student Travel Grants Fund. The grants do not cover the cost of the entire trip. Note that students are responsible for obtaining required visas for travel to the UK. Application forms are available from the Fine Arts Office, 1033 Run Run Shaw Tower, Centennial Campus. The closing date for applications is September 27, 5:00 pm.
